

OTHER GSC REPRESENTATIVE COMMITTEES

CREATIVE ARTS COUNCIL

Headed by MIT's Associate Provost, the Creative Arts Council was established in the fall of 1989 to take its place beside the other faculty councils and to bridge the gaps between arts programs residing in different schools and department within the Institute. The Creative Arts Council advises the Associate Provost in individual programmatic areas, general curricular issues, facilities, fund-raising, and MIT's relation to outside cultural and educational institutions.

CARD COUNCIL

The MIT Card Advisory Council meets monthly during the academic year to discuss MIT Card Office policies to ensure that these policies best reflect and serve the needs of the entire MIT community.

EDUCATIONAL TECHNOLOGY COUNCIL

The new Council on Educational Technology has been established to provide strategic guidance and oversight of MIT efforts to develop an infrastructure and initiatives for the application of technology to education. The goal of the council will be to enhance the quality of MIT education through appropriate application of technology, to both on-campus life and learning and through distance learning.

STUDENT HEALTH ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The OIT Student Health Advisory Council (SHAC) is a student group that advises the Student Health Center in matters of policy and programming for the benefit of the OIT students and community as a whole. It is comprised of student volunteers from several different fields of study.
